

The ILC is a perfect housing solution for UW students who are:

coming from abroad,
planning to go abroad,
learning foreign languages,
interested in world cultures,
or wanting to live in a vibrant and fun community!

UW-Madison's International Learning Community

Live Locally, Think Globally

Meet and work with distinguished faculty from all over campus!

Special ILC events include: festivals, films, games, dinners, speakers, seminars, research opportunities, trips, performances, and more!

Enjoy a single room in Adams Hall along Lake Mendota!

Live with students from around the USA, China, and the world!

Are you a UW student passionate about Chinese language and culture?

Starting Fall 2015, the ILC in Adams Hall will gain its 9th language immersion program, "Zhongwen Tiandi" or "Chinese heaven-and-earth" - Chinese House!

Both native and non-native speakers are welcome to join the Chinese House. Learn and live with your peers and a Grad Student who provides specific events just for you. Work with your Faculty Director in special ILC seminars!

Prof. Zhang
Chinese House Faculty Director

We will begin accepting applications on Wednesday October 15th, 2014!

Please view the application online at the following URL:

<http://www.housing.wisc.edu/ilc/join>

For more info, contact

sara.arnsdorf@housing.wisc.edu

kate.wallner@housing.wisc.edu